The Lessons

Genesis 15:1-6 (NRSV)

After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, ‘Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great.’ But Abram said, ‘O LORD God, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?’ And Abram said, ‘You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir.’ But the word of the LORD came to him, ‘This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir.’ He brought him outside and said, ‘Look towards heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them.’ Then he said to him, ‘So shall your descendants be.’ And he believed the LORD; and the LORD reckoned it to him as righteousness.

Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16 (NRSV)

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old—and Sarah herself was barren—because he considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, ‘as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.’

All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Luke 12:32-40 (NRSV)

‘Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

‘Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

‘But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.’

Genesis 15:1-6

Psalm 33:12-15, 18-21

Response: First, Cantor

Then, All

Organ:

Everyone:

Lord, let your lov-ing kind-ness be up-on us, as we have put our trust in you.

Cantor: Happy is the nation whose God is the LORD! *
 happy the people he has chosen to be his own!
 The LORD looks down from heaven, *
 and beholds all the people in the world.
 From where he sits enthroned he turns his gaze *
 on all who dwell on the earth.
 He fashions all the hearts of them *
 and understands all their works.

Organ: Everyone:

Lord, let your lov-ing kind-ness be up-on us, as we have put our trust in you.

Cantor: Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon those who fear him, *
 on those who wait upon his love,
 To pluck their lives from death, *
 and to feed them in time of famine.
 Our soul waits for the LORD; *
 he is our help and our shield.
 Indeed, our heart rejoices in him, *
 for in his holy Name we put our trust.

Organ: Everyone:

Lord, let your lov-ing kind-ness be up-on us, as we have put our trust in you.

School Supply Drive Continues

Summer Psalmist, run through the Psalm of the day (all invited), 10:00 am

School Supply Drive for Hopelink Kenmore Place

Redeemer's annual drive for school supplies for children at Hopelink Kenmore Place begins on August 7. It continues through the end of the month. Our focus is to provide back packs for all the children, but any school supply is much appreciated. There are currently 20 children, with 5 of them starting kindergarten or first grade. Bring supplies to the bin in the parish hall. Read more online: <http://bit.ly/2a1ujBN>

Finger Walk a Labyrinth

During coffee hour today, explore finger walking a table top labyrinth at Church of the Redeemer. A guided walk on the Transfiguration will be available for your reflection. Read more, including about plans about monthly walks on a canvass labyrinth: <http://bit.ly/2aBha5P>

Summer Psalmist Invitation

All are welcome to practice the psalm before the service this summer. Meet Sheila at the organ at 10:00 am for a couple of run-throughs of the day's psalm. Learn more about chant and the psalms, an important part of our worship. Any interested singers, including children, are welcome.

Help with the Nursery

We are joyful to see more children in our nursery. There were six children last Sunday. Could you help by volunteering occasionally? Contact nursery@redeemer-kenmore.org.

Coffee Hour Sign-up

We need people to sign up to host coffee hour after mid-August. You can keep it simple. Instructions for making coffee are provided. The list is in the parish hall.

Off-campus office hours

Off-campus office hours with Fr. Jed resume in August 2016.

The Font

The Font is the weekly newsletter of Church of the Redeemer. There are details and stories that are not in the Sunday bulletin. To view, go to <http://bit.ly/CORFontArchive>. To receive The Font and other parish announcements by email, go to <http://bit.ly/CORnewsletter>.

News items

Please remember to send news items or changes to those serving to news@redeemer-kenmore.org so everyone that needs to know sees it.
