

The Episcopal Church welcomes you

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER

Glorify the Lord,
all you works of the Lord

The 15th Sunday after Pentecost: Proper 17C

August 28, 2016

The Lessons

Ecclesiasticus 10:12-18 (NRSV)

The beginning of human pride is to forsake the Lord;

the heart has withdrawn from its Maker.

For the beginning of pride is sin,

and the one who clings to it pours out abominations.

Therefore the Lord brings upon them unheard-of calamities, and destroys them completely.

The Lord overthrows the thrones of rulers, and enthrones the lowly in their place.

The Lord plucks up the roots of the nations, and plants the humble in their place.

The Lord lays waste the lands of the nations, and destroys them to the foundations of the earth.

He removes some of them and destroys them, and erases the memory of them from the earth.

Pride was not created for human beings, or violent anger for those born of women.

Hebrews 13:1-8, 15-16 (NRSV)

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honor by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.' So we can say with confidence,

'The Lord is my helper;

I will not be afraid.

What can anyone do to me?'

Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever. Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Luke 14:1, 7-14 (NRSV)

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable. ‘When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, “Give this person your place”, and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, “Friend, move up higher”; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.’

He said also to the one who had invited him, ‘When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.’

A Reading

Ecclesiasticus 10:12-18

Psalm 112

Choir: Happy are they who fear the LORD.

from Gradual Psalms for the RCL, ed. Bruce E. Ford, Church Publishing Incorporated

All: Happy are they who fear the LORD.

Choir: Hallelujah!

Happy are they who fear the Lord *

and have great delight in his commandments!

Their descendants will be mighty in the land; *
the generation of the upright will be blessed.
Wealth and riches will be in their house, *
and their righteousness will last for ever.

from Gradual Psalms for the RCL, ed. Bruce E. Ford, Church Publishing Incorporated

All: Happy are they who fear the LORD.

Choir: Light shines in the darkness for the upright; *
the righteous are merciful and full of compassion.
It is good for them to be generous in lending *
and to manage their affairs with justice.

All: Happy are they who fear the LORD.

Choir: For they will never be shaken; *
the righteous will be kept in everlasting remembrance.
They will not be afraid of any evil rumors; *
their heart is right;
they put their trust in the Lord.
Their heart is established and will not shrink, *
until they see their desire upon their enemies.

All: Happy are they who fear the LORD.

Choir: They have given freely to the poor, *
and their righteousness stands fast for ever;
they will hold up their head with honor.
The wicked will see it and be angry;
they will gnash their teeth and pine away; *
the desires of the wicked will perish.

All: Happy are they who fear the LORD.

Tuesday Eucharist

We will take a break from the Eucharist on Tuesday evenings until September 6. They will start again at the usual time of 7:00 pm.

Beginning in September, there will not be a Eucharist on the third Tuesday of the month. Instead, there will be a labyrinth walk in the parish hall in the undercroft. For those who want, there will be a distribution of the Blessed Sacrament at the end of the labyrinth walk.

Monthly labyrinth walks start September 20, 2016

Starting on September 20, 2016, Church of the Redeemer will offer monthly labyrinth walks on the third Tuesday of the month in the parish hall. The labyrinth is open to the community and for our own prayer life. In order for these labyrinth walks to happen, we need volunteers. The sign-up sheet is in the parish hall. Fall Breakfast on September 11 at 9:00 am

Bring your appetite to church on September 11 for a potluck breakfast. This is a great opportunity to catch up with everyone you know who attends the other service, and share in fellowship between service. Breakfast cannot happen without your help. Please sign up in the Parish Hall to bring a dish to share. It can be as simple as cut up fruit or as extravagant a quiche. If it's a donuts day, that's great too. We need people to help set up and clean up, if that is more like you, with signups for that also in the Parish Hall. We hope we see you there.

Choir Rehearsals Begin Soon

Choir rehearsals begin Wednesday, September 7. This is a wonderful community of people, who sing, laugh, and pray together. New members are always welcome. If you would like more information, contact Sheila Bristow, Organist and Choirmaster, music@redeemer-kenmore.org.

Frances Walton Solo Competition Winners' Concert

On, Sunday, September 11, at 3:00 pm, that Ladies Musical Club presents a free concert at Church of the Redeemer. The concert features winners from the 2016 Frances Walton Solo Competition: Anne Suda, cello, Dana Jackson, bassoon, and Nicholas Dold, piano. Respond to Gulf Coast Floods

We need your support

In mid-August, parts of the US Gulf Coast experienced historic levels of flooding, with at least seven dead, and tens of thousands unable to return to their homes. As of Monday, August 15, more than 40,000 homes and businesses remained without power, and over 10,000 homes were flooded. The National Weather Service has predicted more flooding to come and an expansion to surrounding regions along the Gulf Coast.

Episcopal Relief and Development's US Disaster Team has been in close contact with dioceses in the region and is providing support for their local efforts. The immediate response will help provide basic necessities to those most impacted. Affected dioceses will then coordinate with Episcopal Relief and Development to meet needs in the coming months and years. Currently, the Episcopal Diocese of Louisiana, its churches and their ministries are reaching out to those in need of assistance, assessing what needs to be done and serving as best they can.

“In a disaster like this, we work closely with local church leaders to assess what is truly needed,” said Katie Mears, Director of Episcopal Relief and Development’s US Disaster Program. “We have begun to provide resources needed to assist those most vulnerable.”

Your support of Episcopal Relief and Development’s US Disaster Fund helps us respond to disasters. To help care for those affected by this crisis, please fill out the coupon below and mail it in with your check or credit card information. You can also contribute online at episcopalrelief.org/gulfcoastflood. Thank you for your compassion and prayers. With your partnership, we are healing a hurting world
