Ora et Labora: Benedictine Spirituality in everyday life

In February, 2017, we will examine how to apply Benedictine spiritual practices to our everyday life. We will explore Lectio Divina, the Liturgy of Hours, the precepts in which many of Christianity's largest orders have planted their common life for nearly two millennia, and how it is just as fresh today.

We're moving...but just for Lent!

Hopefully you've heard by now about the improvements that are coming for our worship space. In order for these improvements to happen, we will be moving our worship services to the Education Building for Lent. We will return to our renewed worship space by Easter. If you have any questions, you can email or call the rector, or contact the office.

Mid- week Eucharist is moving too.

Beginning March 1st, Ash Wednesday, the mid-week Eucharist will move to Wednesdays at Noon. The Schedule will be: Noonday Prayer, 12:00-12:12; Holy Eucharist, 12:15-12:40.

Get your Redeemer carpet square

As the renovation of our worship space continues, you may find yourself beginning to feel nostalgic for the old carpet that has graced this building since its construction. Fear not, that lovely orange can be with you always. If you would like a square of carpet for your very own, please contact the office.

Northshore Nourishing Network mobile farm stand pilot

21 Acres will be conducting a 4-6 week mobile farm stand pilot to judge community interest in an ongoing mobile farm stand program. This program hopes to reach community members with limited resources, providing them with access to fresh, local fruits and vegetables. 21 Acres would like community groups to give their support by committing to buying up any produce that does not sell during the farm stand operating hours. More info will be available as a schedule is established. To find out more, contact Meghan Tenhoff, Food Access Programs at 21 Acres, 425-481-1500, meghan@21acres.org.

The Lessons

Leviticus 19:1-2, 9-18

The Lord spoke to Moses, saying: Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy. When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very edges of your field, or gather the gleanings of your harvest. You shall not strip your vineyard bare, or gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the alien: I am the Lord your God. You shall not steal; you shall not deal falsely; and you shall not lie to one another. And you shall not swear falsely by my name, profaning the name of your God: I am the Lord. You shall not defraud your neighbor; you shall not steal; and you shall not keep for yourself the wages of a laborer until morning. You shall not revile the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind; you shall fear your God: I am the Lord. You shall not render an unjust judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbor. You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not profit by the blood of your neighbor: I am the Lord. You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbor, or you will incur guilt yourself. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the Lord.

1 Corinthians 3:10-11, 16-23

According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building on it. Each builder must choose with care how to build on it. For no one can lay any foundation other than the one that has been laid; that foundation is Jesus Christ. Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple. Do not deceive yourselves. If you think that you are wise in this age, you should become fools so that you may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their craftiness," and again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile." So let no one boast about human leaders. For all things are yours, whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future-- all belong to you, and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

Matthew 5:38-48

Jesus said, "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' But I say to you, Do not resist an evildoer. But if anyone strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other also; and if anyone wants to sue you and take your coat, give your cloak as well; and if anyone forces you to go one mile, go also the second mile. Give to everyone who begs from you, and do not refuse anyone who wants to borrow from you. "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be children of your Father in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect."
