Upcoming Events

Wednesday, August 16

Noonday Prayer and Holy Eucharist, 12:00 pm

Memorial Garden work party and meeting - Monday, August 14

The Friends of the Memorial Garden monthly work party and meeting will be this Monday, August 14 at 10:00 a.m.. We will do maintenance in the garden, visit, have a short meeting and sign up for Garden Vigilance for the upcoming month. Anyone who is interested in gardening and fellowship while looking after this sacred space is most welcome to join us.

Labyrinth Walk - Tuesday, August 15

The August Labyrinth Walk falls on the major Feast of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Come and explore the various ways the church, both East and West, England and the New World, have viewed Mary and how we might learn to walk with her. Blossom the labyrinth at 6:30 pm; walk at 7:00 pm; fold-n-store afterwards. Come for all or just the walk. Any questions, please contact Bee Jay Mar.

Street closure

As part of the ongoing sidewalk and traffic circle construction, NE 182nd St. will be closed at 62nd Ave. NE, August 14-31, Monday-Friday, 7:00 am to 5:00 pm. If you visit the church during those times, you will need to enter the parking lot from the lower entrance or approach the upper entrance on NE 182nd from the east.

Children's Education Program Coordinator

Church of the Redeemer is seeking a coordinator to guide the new children's education program. This is a part-time contract position, approximately 5-6 hours per week for one program year, September, 2017 through May, 2018. For more information, see our website or follow the link in The Font.

Hopelink 2017 School Supply Drive

Thanks to everyone who donated towels to Hopelink during June and July. Now Hopelink moves on to their fall school supply drive. The emphasis is on collecting backpacks, but please feel free to donate other school supplies as well. Donations may be left in the outreach collection box in the Parish Hall. They will be distributed right before the start of school.

Summer Psalmists

During the summer choir recess, any interested singers are invited to help lead the psalmody at the 10:30 am liturgy. There's no need to sign up; just meet Sheila at the organ at 10:00 am for a brief rehearsal. Thank you.

Do you like to garden?

The grounds around the Education Building and in front of the main church building need some regular weeding and watering this summer. There are tools and yard waste containers available. You can work on your own schedule. If you are interested in adopting a garden for the summer, please contact Jen King.

Church Directory updates

It is time once again to update our Church Directory. In the month of August, Glenn and Fr. Jed will be taking pictures at coffee hour to make a new directory. Photos of members and their families will make it easier for new attendees to become familiar with their fellow members. We will also collect updates of addresses and other information. Glenn will be at the coffee hour following the 10:30 am services on August 13 and 20.

Diocese of Olympia newsletters

The Diocese provides a number of informative newsletters: Across the Diocese, World & National News; Bishop's News Special Editions; Faith Formation; Multicultural Ministries; Stewards' Stirrings. You can sign up to receive any of these newsletters by checking under Announcements on the Diocesan website, or by following the handy link in The Font.

Bothell Community Kitchen

The Lessons

1 Kings 19:9-18 (NRSV)

At that place he came to a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." Then the Lord said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. Whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall kill; and whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill. Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him."

Romans 10:5-15 (NRSV)

Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that "the person who does these things will live by them." But the righteousness that comes from faith says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down) "or 'Who will descend into the abyss?'" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? "The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame."

For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved." But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

Matthew 14:22-33 (NRSV)

Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."
