

The Church of the Redeemer

The First Sunday in Lent
February 18, 2018

Welcome to the Church of the Redeemer. We welcome all races, all religions, all countries of origin, all sexual orientations, all genders, all God's people. We hope you find here refreshment for your soul.

Children are always welcome at the Church of the Redeemer. There is a softer space at the front of the nave for young children so they can see and engage in the Liturgy.

Out of respect for those around you, and for the liturgy, please silence all electronic devices and refrain from flash photography.

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.People Glory to you, Lord Christ.¶ After the Reading is read, the Celebrant says,Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.People Praise to you, Lord Christ.The Sermon

The Rev. Jedediah Fox

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Peace*Celebrant* The peace of the Lord be always with you.People And also with you.¶ *The Ministers and People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.Announcements

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we pray,

The Lord's Prayer

¶ All in unison.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

¶ The Celebrant breaks the bread.

The Fraction Anthem

Hymnal 319

Post-communion Prayer

¶ The Celebrant says

Let us pray.

¶ Celebrant and People

Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

¶ The Celebrant says

Bow down before the Lord.

¶ The people bow their heads. The Celebrant says

Grant, Almighty God, that your people may recognize their weakness and put their whole trust in your strength, so that they may rejoice for ever in the protection of your loving providence; through Christ our Lord; and The Wisdom of God the Love of God and the Grace of God strengthen you to be Christ's hands and heart in this world, in the name of the Holy Trinity.

People Amen.

Coffee hours in Lent

Keeping Lent means we shake things up - we change our routines to be more fully aware of God's presence in our lives. For some people, that means adding a practice. For others, it means giving up a habit that is distracting. This year, Redeemer is going to change how we do coffee hour after the 10:30 service. We are going to give up disposables and use our china cups and plates. Dishwashing help will be welcomed if you are looking for a Lenten practice. You don't need to sign up - just show up in the kitchen around 12:30 pm on Sunday.

Lenten Learnings: the Prescient Prophets - Wednesdays during Lent

During the season of Lent, we will be meeting for lunch at 1:00 pm on Wednesdays, and looking at the prophets. Soup and simple sandwiches will be available. Donations accepted.

The Lessons

Genesis 9:8-17 (NRSV)

Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, 'As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.' God said, 'This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.' God said to Noah, 'This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth.'

1 Peter 3:18-22 (NRSV)

For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit, in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison, who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight people, were saved through water. And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you—not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him.

Mark 1:9-15 (NRSV)

In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him. And a voice came from heaven, 'You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.' And the Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness. He was in the wilderness for forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels waited on him. Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.'
